SHEPHERDS' CORNER

What are you anxious about? A leading Christian author has recently published a book “Anxious for Nothing: Finding Calm in a Chaotic World”. We as a culture always seem to be waiting for the next shoe to drop.

“The United States is now the most anxious nation in the world. Stress-related ailments cost the nation $200 billion every year in medical bills and lost productivity, while the usage of sedative related drugs keeps skyrocketing; just between 1997 and 2004, Americans more than doubled their spending on anti-anxiety medications like Xanax and Valium, from $900 million to $2.1 billion.”

Christians should be the least anxious people on the planet. From scripture we already know the outcome. Even with Paul in prison he wrote Philippians 4:4-9.

⁴Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice!

⁵Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near.

⁶Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.

⁷And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

⁸Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things.

⁹Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me—put it into practice. And the God of peace will be with you.

Your Shepherds

In consideration of visitors and others, please leave the last row of the auditorium open. Also, if you are able to sit toward the middle of the rows, those with difficulty moving and those with small children, would appreciate it.

Then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and purpose. Each of you should look not only to your own interest, but to the interest of others.” Phil 2:2&4

Mission Corner

It's the beginning of a new month. Time for the body to join together in one concerted effort to sustain the spirit of Mission Sunday. Hopefully, everyone was able to complete February's task; contact Tim Sands to see how you can commit to helping at Delano Bay Camp this year. Let's all keep dedicating ourselves to “the idea of the month” in support of our mission work throughout the whole year by participating together in each of the eleven ideas suggested in the May 2017 article. For the month of March: Plan on supporting Delano Bay by renting one of their modestly priced cabins for a family fall “retreat” during their slow months this winter. Here is a fun hike near Delano Bay you may want to consider when you visit: <http://www.keypenparks.com/rocky-creek-conservation-area.html>
