SHEPHERDS' CORNER

Being human we are equipped with anxiety, worry, stress and fear. Last week we discussed a cure. Through scripture we first see Peter walking on the water, and then Jesus praying in the garden. We have determined that the cure is to keep our eyes fixed on God. Today we ask, how do I do that?

How do I inject calm in our lives seeing this fast pace chaotic world? First and foremost spend more time with God. Learn to pray as if talking to God as if Jesus was sitting at the kitchen table with you. How would speak to Him? Next learn to mediate in the presence of the Holy Spirit.

During your mediation when you have felt the presence of God, read the 23rd Psalm. This will enable you to see how David thought of God.

Your Shepherds

A new concrete ADA ramp will be added to the front of our main building April 5&6. Since, they will be pouring concrete, the building will not be accessible Thursday or Friday.

The new ramp will be ready for use Sunday morning!

Local Need

Host Families for International High School Students

High school exchange students in need of loving families that can give them a place to sleep/study, daily meals and lots of love. Students are 15-18 years of age, will have their own spending money, medical insurance and will be here for the school year.

Mission Corner

Please consider "praying the scripture" for our missionaries this week with the following words: Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3). We are lifting up our voices to you on behalf of all of our missionaries preaching the good news to everyone (Mark 16:15). We are mindful of the specific prayer requests of the Kee's in Tuba City to find help for their ministry and Kingdom fruit for their new leadership. We are asking you to provide new caretakers at Delano Bay so that Ron and Sabina Birdwell can continue to serve in the new direction you have led them. Thank you for the toil of these faithful servants. They make us confident about your promise that you begin good works and carry them on to completion (Philippians 1:6) as they labor for you and resist growing weary in their well doing (Galatians 6:9).
