SHEPHERDS' CORNER

Colossians 4: 2-6

<sup>2</sup> Devote yourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful. <sup>3</sup> And pray for us, too, that God may open a door for our message, so that we may proclaim the mystery of Christ, for which I am in chains. <sup>4</sup> Pray that I may proclaim it clearly, as I should. <sup>5</sup> Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity. <sup>6</sup> Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone.

Mission Corner

"We are contacting congregations in Louisiana and the Houston area about flooding. Governor of LA has declared a state of emergency. We have a trailer loaded, ready to go as soon as we get the request."

This is a quote from Dale Linge's Facebook page in response to the severe weather systems currently coming through the southern United States. Hopefully you recognize Dale as the brother from Churches of Christ Disaster Relief that comes to speak and/or presents a booth on Mission Sunday every year. After speaking with him regarding the current crisis, he advised the following; we should opt to help physically when a disaster occurs in our own area, but we can help by donating on-line at <https://disasterrelieffort.org/> or working with their sister organization, Churches of Christ Disaster Response Team, whose ministry is cleaning up after disasters (removing drywall, clearing branches and debris, construction, etc.).

Interestingly, Linge said his son-in-law has the advantage of working on the Choctaw reservation as an optometrist in one of the most frequently affected areas. Apparently, the natives have a very effective storm shelter siren warning. He states that his son-in-law lives on a hill and tornadoes tend to avoid hills as they bounce off them.

Please continue to be prayerful and mindful of this ministry as they strive to show they are Christians by their love (John 13:35). Each of us should consider our role in this tragic event and give "hearts and hands" to those in need.
