SHEPHERDS' CORNER

Prayer can be defined as a dialog between God and people. It is considered our most intimate communication with the creator of all things. The ultimate prayer warrior of the first century was James, the half-brother of Jesus. He wrote the letter that bears his name during a time of intense Jewish persecution. The persecution was not only physical but also cultural, being considered dead to your family and community if you believed Jesus to be the Messiah. James writes about prayer:

James 5:13-16(NIV)

Is any one of you in trouble? He should pray. Is anyone happy? Let him sing songs of praise. Is any one of you sick? He should call the elders of the church to pray over him and anoint him with oil in the name of the Lord. And the prayer offered in faith will make the sick person well; the Lord will raise him up. If he has sinned, he will be forgiven. Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous man is powerful and effective.

James was cruelly martyred about 64AD by the Scribes and Pharisees, who cast him from the pinnacle of the Temple. As the fall did not kill him, his enemies stoned him, finally dispatching him with a fuller's club.
