SHEPHERDS' CORNER

How would you describe your prayer life?

When two people are developing a relationship, they share things about themselves and spend time together. The more they both share, the stronger the relationship becomes. Think back on a relationship you have had that stopped growing. Odds are one of the two individuals stopped sharing.

God truly loves us and has shared himself with us through His Son, scripture and the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. Now it is our turn! Our relationship with God will only grow when we are willing to share our true feelings and desires with Him. Some would say God already knows us, so why bother. The true question is do we know ourselves? Share your heart with God in prayer. You will learn about yourself and He will share His with you. Let us make it a goal for 2019 to spend more time in honest conversation with our Father.

"Live From Delano Bay Christian Camp ~1st - 3rd Grade Camp"

I'm coming to you "live" this week from Delano Bay Christian camp where Central Kitsap Church of Christ is hosting the 1-3rd grade space camp themed, "3-2-1 Launch: God's Mission of Love". They were taught how God sent Jesus to the earth to show his love to man. This year was a true outreach with a majority of the campers having their very first experience at camp. Here's what some of them said when I asked them what their favorite thing at camp was:

"I had 2 favorite things on one day, the slip-n-slide and the spit skit" -Jordon from Clallam Bay Church of Christ.

"All of it" and the campfire song led by Christian Wheeler, "You Can't Ride my Big Blue Dragon" -Michael from North Shore Christian Church (Jeb's nephew...)

"Beachcombing. I love marine life. I'm going to be a marine biologist." -Sophia from Renton Church of Christ.

Making Memories for years to come...
