SHEPHERDS' CORNER

When No One is Watching

In 1963, the rock group "The Beach Boys" wrote a song entitled "In My Room." The first line of the lyrics reads, "There's a place where I can go and tell my secrets to. In my room ..." Imagine if you were sitting in any of the rooms at home and all of a sudden, the roof was lifted off (no, it's not a tornado taking you to Oz), and Jesus was standing over your house watching every move and hearing every word. When you went outside, all of the other houses still had roofs attached—until you walked in! Then the roofs on those places all disappeared so Jesus could watch you. How many secrets would you be able to keep? How would you act?

Many times I've heard it said that what makes you a truly good and honest person is how you act and what you do when no one is watching. It is easy to do the right thing when you are at worship service or when other people are around to "remind" you what is right and wrong. In those times when you find yourself with an opportunity to do something and "not get caught," remind yourself that God gave us our conscience to keep us in check. He hears all things and knows all things. He knows every thought we have, so listen to the still small voice that guides us through each day.

When we think we have secret places, either in our homes or in our hearts, remember, God is looking in from the top!

Take notice, you senseless ones among the people, you fools, when will you become wise? Does he who fashioned the ear not hear? Does he who formed the eye not see? Does he who disciplines nations not punish? Does he who teaches mankind lack knowledge? The Lord knows all human plans; he knows that they are futile. (Psalms 94:8-11)

Be blessed,
Your shepherds

Eston Mansfield returned home last week from deployment. Welcome back, Eston!

I am looking for individuals with unique or interesting hobbies that they would be willing to share with the CKCOC elementary age children with a short video interview (10-15 minutes max).

So far we have visited a chicken coop, been to a small family farm, and met a new pony.

What is your special interest or hobby? I'd love to come do a video interview.
